

Current Opportunity – Truck Driver

Who we are:

An independent, family owned company that was founded in 1971, Snobelen Farms Ltd. specializes in the production, processing and sales of food grade soybeans, commercial grains and pedigreed seed for markets across Canada and Internationally.

By staying true to our core values of People, Integrity, Sustainability, and Community, we have grown from 2 grain bins in Ripley, Ontario and 2 employees, to 7 locations across Southwestern Ontario and over 80 employees. We take pride in our past and are excited about our bold future.

Your part in it:

As a Truck Driver at Snobelen Farms Ltd. you will feel proud and accomplished and will know you are contributing to the success of our business and the food industry.

General Duties include:

- Safely and respectfully operating Snobelen Farms Ltd. owned vehicles
- Exercising good driving manners to appropriately represent the company
- Completing truck and trailer pre-inspections
- Ensuring proper documentation is maintained
- Maintaining a clean and safe truck

How you will excel:

- Maintaining a clean driving record and AZ license
- Always working with a Safety First attitude!
- Providing excellent customer service
- Respectful and precise communication.
- Resilience and the ability to remain positive while dealing with irregular and unpredictable changes
- Experience with bulk grain and B-trains
- Verifiable insurability

What we have to offer:

We are currently in search of a truck driver to join our team! We are open to discuss part-time, seasonal work or full time work for the right candidate.

If you have been thinking about making a career change or looking for some extra work, reach out to discuss details!!

We take pride in providing all our employees with a challenging, rewarding and, most importantly, caring work environment. We understand the challenges of work/life balances and provide flexible opportunities.